HELP

Children with cancer need our help. See page 2 for ways to help... and how the president of Esquire Assist, by shaving his head, is attempting to raise $1,000 for the St. Baldrick's Foundation. See how you can help by making donations directly to the FoundationPage 2 Footer

YEAR END

PRECLEARANCES...Almost any title 15 filing at the Corporation Bureau can be pre-cleared. All pre-clearances can be expedited. Usually, this time of year, mergers are the big concern. Remember, if you have your merger to us before 12 noon, we should be able to make the 1 PM expedite deadline to get same day service. This time of year it is especially important to use Esquire Assist to file your documents at the Bureau

Pink Capitol Fountain - Breast Cancer Awareness 10/07

Ad for Client--Popcorn is on us

Fall in PA and at EA meant color and fun. The beauty of Little Buffalo State Park, the touching Breast Cancer Awareness display at the Capitol Fountain and some fun doing a photo for a Pittsburgh client, sponsors of a film festival in that great city. Their catch line: "The popcorn is on us."

LEGAL WORD OF THE MONTH: beneficiary

n. a broad definition for any person or entity (like a charity) who is to receive assets or profits from an estate, a trust, an insurance policy or any instrument in which there is distribution.

From: Law.com legal dictionary. See below for a great way to make St. Baldrick's Foundation the beneficiary of funds donated to help cure childhood cancer.

KEYSTONE INNOVATION ZONES

Have you heard about these zones? Funds and Tax Credits are available to community-university partnerships "to foster innovation and create entrepreneurial opportunities." <http://www.newpa.com/programDetail.aspx?id=56> Also, check out www.newPA.com generally for other development programs from the State.

APPALACHIAN TRAIL

A unique National Park that runs from Georgia to Maine wandering through Duncannon, PA just North of Harrisburg which is said to be the half way mark. There is a shelter south of the town on Cove Mountain named the Thelma Mark's Shelter. One New Years day weekend I spent a few nights there and supplied the last entry in the shelter journal. As requested by the depositor of the journal I took it back and mailed it to him. Before mailing I copied it. One entry in the journal was a poem by a famous trail poet named "The Poetry Man." The following is his poem:

TRAIL TOWN

Poised outside of the trail town
Deciding just what I should do
I know that once I get into town too busy to think things through

Letters to write, laundry to wash
Buy groceries and supplies

Cop a shower somehow somewhere
Check out where the best meal lies

And then comes the big decision
Do I take a layover day
Depends on whether I heed my schedule
Or heed what my feet have to say

And maybe the town is a charmer
With a hospitable atmosphere
For instance, Duncannon, the town I approach
Charges twenty five cents for a beer.

Now I'm not the worlds biggest drinker
But I do have to inspect the goods
Sometimes the charms of these trail towns
Is as memorable as the woods.

Poetry Man was mentioned in a National Geographic Article back in Supporting Chemotherapy Patients... and the St. Baldrick's Foundation (President of Esquire Assist tries the Chemo Look)

St. Patrick's - Harrisburg (Fall light)

The author above is having his head shaved to support his adult daughter who is undergoing chemo.
